REPORT NO.

1. It is reported that the Administration for Foreign Trade recently received oral orders from the SIA to the effect that exports from the Russian Zone to Yugoslavia are to be cancelled. The orders were so phrased as to make the cancellation appear to be merely a delay, but it is clearly understood that it will be permanent. Yugoslavia has received only about one and one half million dollars' worth of goods, mostly agricultural implements, of the existing contract for five million dollars.
